Vapormatic's new accessories and workshop tools catalogue is now available. The 300 page catalogue features over 3,200 products and includes more than 1,000 new lines within this fast growing area of business.

Amongst the many products, this edition presents the award winning range K80 Ball hitch range from Scharmuller, a new range of personal protection equipment from market leading manufacturer Moldex, along with an extension to the 'Genius' range of professional tools as a result of the customer demand experienced for the brand.

This catalogue also has more technical content and comprehensive indexing than ever before to make it even easier to browse and find the product you need.
